How can I benefit from participating in this market?

Vendors will benefit from being surrounded by other high quality vendors. There will be a large online, radio and print promotion drawing new customers from near and far. The market’s Instagram account will be very active promoting the vendors as well. We intend to catch those visiting cottage country on their way home, as well as being a “must see” destination for locals and tourists alike. You will have a broad reach allowing you to engage in the community and sell directly to your customers.

The Market Shoppe will also have a dedicated page on our website to promote The Market Shoppe at Rocklands Market. Vendors will be given an advertisement area on the page which will include a photo, blurb about their business and links to drive traffic to their website (or social media) directly.
